

Write a summary of the interview

Arthur Garnier

February 4, 2015

The interview is about trafficking organisations who taking advantage of the situation, indeed the quake kills lot of people, and children are orphan or homeless. Even more, schools have been destroyed, so the parents sells theirs parents in hope to give to them better education, or have something in return. But in their new house, the children are sometimes under violences and the government do nothing.
